

A Guide to the Birds of Admiralty Park

A total of 44 species of birds have been observed so far within Admiralty Park. Some of the more common birds are illustrated in this board.

For more information about Singapore's biodiversity, please visit NParks Flora&Fauna Web at florafaunaweb.nparks.gov.sg

Blue-throated Bee-eater
(Merops viridis)
Photo credit: Eileen Chia

Grey Heron
(Ardea cinerea)
Photo credit: Benjamin Tan

Collared Kingfisher
(Todiramphus chloris)
Photo credit: Eileen Chia

Common Iora
(Aegintha tiphia)
Photo credit: Eileen Chia

Olive-backed Sunbird
(Nectarinia jugularis)
Photo credit: Eileen Chia

Pink-necked Green Pigeon
(Treron vernans)
Photo credit: Eileen Chia

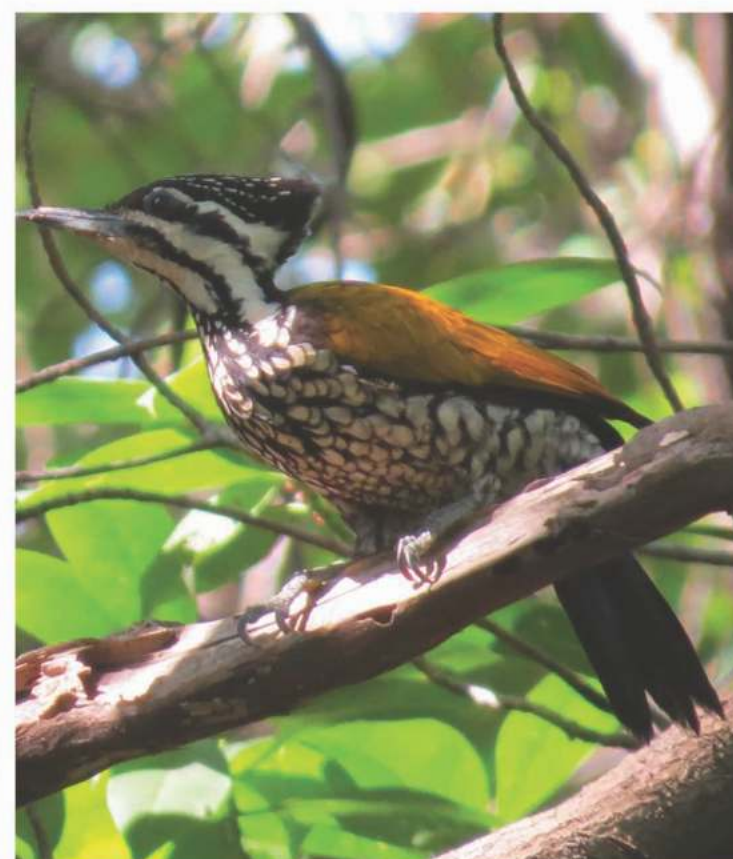

White-throated Kingfisher
(Halcyon smymensis)
Photo credit: Eileen Chia

Scaly-breasted Munia
(Lonchura punctulata)
Photo credit: Eileen Chia

Common Sandpiper
(Actitis hypoleucos)
Photo credit: Eileen Chia

Common Flameback
(Dinopium javanense)
Photo credit: Eileen Chia

White-bellied Sea Eagle
(Haliaeetus leucogaster)
Photo credit: Eileen Chia

Pied Fantail
(Rhipidura javanica)
Photo credit: Eileen Chia

Pied Triller
(Lalage nigra)
Photo credit: Eileen Chia

Yellow Bittern
(Ixobrychus sinensis)
Photo credit: Benjamin Tan

nparksbuzz
Share your love for nature with us at #nparksbuzz